ORDER

JOHN F. KEENAN, United States District Judge:

On August 24, 2020, counsel of record for Defendant Milesh Talreja¹ ("Defense Counsel") submitted a letter under seal to request (1) a 30-day adjournment of Talreja's sentencing, which is currently scheduled for Monday, September 14, 2020 at 11:30 a.m., and (2) their appointment pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3006A. Shortly thereafter, the Government filed a letter opposing Defense Counsel's request for an adjournment but taking no position on their request for appointment.

Defense Counsel's request to adjourn Talreja's sentencing is DENIED. However, the deadline for all sentencing submissions, currently scheduled for Friday, August 28, 2020, is extended to Wednesday, September 9, 2020, to give Defense Counsel additional time to prepare for sentencing. The Court will decide Defense Counsel's request for appointment during Talreja's sentencing.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Talreja must appear in-person in Courtroom 20-C for sentencing on Monday, September 14, 2020 at 11:30 a.m.; Defense Counsel and counsel for the Government may appear telephonically if they so choose. Counsel are directed to inform the Court whether they will appear in-person or telephonically by no later than 12:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 10, 2020.

SO ORDERED.
